"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. This was the longest running revival in the history of America.

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. This was the longest running revival in the history of America.

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. This was the longest running revival in the history of America.

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. This was the longest running revival in the history of America.

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Mr. Jaynes was a part of the Pensacola revival from 1995 to 2004. He was on staff at the Brownsville School of Ministry that was formed out of the revival. It grew from 160 students to over 1200 students in less than two years. Sonny worked as part of the prayer team with Evangelist Steve Hill praying for people every night for over five years. This was the longest running revival in the history of America.

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."

Sonny Jaynes to Share at NLF

Sonny Jaynes and his wife, Margy will be at New Life on Sunday, August 7 at 7:00 PM. At 81 years old, Sonny is a retired pastor but continues to teach and minister. He is currently teaching a series from his book entitled "Liberating Love".

"It begins with man's responsibility to obey God's commandments, which many feel we are unable to. What kind of a God would command us to do something if He thought we were unable to do so. I do not believe that God's commandments are grievous but a loving attempt to help man fulfill His intention for his life."
