NLF Welcomes Back Tom Stamman

Tom Stamman of Impact Ministries International will be with us on Sunday, June 14 at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.

As a missionary evangelist, preacher, and teacher, Tom works daily to save the lost, preach the Word, instruct, strengthen, encourage, comfort and edify the Body of Christ on a group and individual basis.

Tom gave his life to Christ at a Bible camp when he was seventeen years old. That same year, he went on a mission trip to Colombia that changed his life forever.

He graduated from North Central Bible College with a degree in Pastoral Studies. He has published eight books one of which was used as a textbook at Rhema Bible College in Tulsa, OK.

In 2004, Tom married Teresa (a medical doctor) and Impact Ministries International was conceived. The City of Refuge began in 2008 when Tom realized that eight children from one of their Honduran feeding programs were naked and homeless. It wrecked him. He set his face like flint and has been on a relentless mission to save and improve the lives of widows and orphans in Honduras and dozens of countries around the world.

Tom's mission is to promote the message of James 1:27 and the IMI vision of fulfilling the great commission.

RESOURCES FOR YOU!

I just wanted to mention a few great resources for you and your families. Please take a moment to look them up on the internet and check out the articles/blogs available. Both of these ministries also have many great books, studies, etc. in their online stores. I especially encourage you to take a look at Jared Dodd's "DIO Trilogy" study.

Happy Father's Day

by Karol Kapelle

This will be my first Father's Day without my daddy. I almost feel guilty for not feeling more sad. Instead, I just feel an overwhelming sense of peace and joy. My dad finished his course. He ran his race and is now with Jesus.

I never doubted my father's love for me. He wasn't a perfect man or a perfect father. But, in my eyes, he was next to perfect! Many of you have heard me say that my dad made it really easy for me to accept the love and forgiveness of my heavenly Father. I realize not all have had the same experience. I hurt for you. Know that God wants to be (and is) your perfect Father. Let Him be.

My daddy gifted me with the desire to serve God.. I never wanted to disappoint him, and I certainly don't want to disappoint my Father God. I wanted to please both of them because of my love and gratitude for them.

There have been many times that I did sin and disappoint, but I didn't fear going quickly to either in repentance. Grace and love were always freely given. Yes, there were consequences of my actions. I often say that it hurt my daddy more than it did me when he had to punish or discipline...ha! I think it may be true with God as well. Oh, how His heart must ache when we fall short. He's made available everything we need to live for Him, and He longs to bless us if we'll only walk in obedience to Him.

I so often think of the song lyrics, "How deep the Father's love for us. How vast beyond all measure. That He should give His only Son to make a wretch His treasure."

Oh, how He loves YOU! As much as I loved my daddy and he loved me, it pales in comparison to the DEEP love that God wants to pour out on us...on you!

Happy Father's Day, Daddy. Thank you for showing me the unconditional love of the Father. (Okay, now I'm crying!) Blessings to the rest of you dads...you have an awesome job!
