We Have "GOOD NEWS"

by Verna Gleason

For years, I thought the "good news" meant salvation in Jesus, period. But, God's Word tells us it includes a whole lot more than that!

Isaiah prophesied, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to preach the good news to the poor, to bind up and heal the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the (physical and spiritual) captives and the opening of prison doors to those that are bound" (Isaiah 61:1).

The Angel of the Lord came to the shepherds and declared, "Behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people...for today, a Savior has been born" (Luke 2:10-11).

John the Baptist came preaching the "good news" proclaiming, "There is One coming who will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire" (Luke 3:16-18).

Then Jesus came and declared, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach good news to the poor, to set the captive free, give sight to the blind and release those that are oppressed" (Luke 4:18).

The apostles and believers in Acts declared the same good news. "Silver and gold have we none, but such as we have give we to you." And as they spoke the Word boldly, more and more people believed, the sick were healed and the oppressed were set free (Acts 4-5). This is the "GOOD NEWS" we still declare today! Don't settle for half a gospel.

December Bible Book of the Month... Second Thessalonians

Unbelievers were still persecuting the Thessalonica church. Paul had already written them a letter to encourage them about this. The church had to continue growing in faith and love with the hope that Jesus would return.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

Thurs., Dec. 24—4:00 PM

A special "THANK YOU!" to Carrol Dahl from the Ladies' Bible Study group. We so appreciate your leadership and, also, all of the work you put into composing the study notes/questions for our Revelation study. They are so helpful!

FYI: The author of "The Non-Prophets Guide to the Book of Revelation" is interested in using Carrol's study guide!
