Meet Your NLF Family...Collin and Emily Douglas

Hey! My name is Collin Douglas. I grew up in Northwood ND, not too far from here, on a farm. My parents were never supposed to have kids but by the grace of God they had my sister and myself. My mom always reminded me of the miracle I was and that I was meant for something big. We were a Christian family that went to church every Sunday and my parents made sure that both my sister and I knew God and followed in His way. I was baptized when I was 9.

I would always go to FaHoCha every year and always looked forward to it. That is where I first met Emily. Emily was the same age as me and at the time my sister, Courtney, was a counselor and became very close friends with Emily. Courtney and many of our friends always tried setting us up, but we remained friends until our college years.

Once we moved back to the area Emily told me we should attend New Life Fellowship. We had gone here for marriage counseling with Jay Deckert, and I had been here once with my sister. I agreed and that's when I really became on fire again. I saw all the mistakes I was doing, and I realized I needed to become the spiritual leader in the house and do right.

I am currently working as an EMT in Harvey and Carrington. This job allows me to help people in their time of need, which I love. I am so grateful for this church and all the new friends and family I have made here. I can't wait to see what this church does and what God had planned for our family's life.

Hi! My name is Emily Douglas. I grew up on a farm just west of Glenfield, and I am the fifth of six children. Growing up my family attended church every Sunday, and I also went to FaHoCha Bible Camp every summer. When I was 13, I had an incredible encounter with God during a conversation with my counselor as the sun was setting. In a moment, He poured out His love on me and I realized just how personal His love really is for each of us. That is when my relationship with Jesus began.

Camp is also where Collin and I met. We counseled together and ended up becoming good friends. The years went by and when we were 19, we started dating. Here we are, 4 years later, happily married!

When Collin and I moved back to the area, I was excited to start coming to New Life. I had been here for church a few times throughout the years thanks to my sister, Amy. We love how freely the Holy Spirit moves, and we are thankful for such an amazing church family.

We currently live in Carrington where I have my own practice as a Licensed Massage Therapist. I enjoy my job and am very thankful God has placed me in this career field that allows me to help others and form relationships with them.

Konroy Boeckel Heading to Africa

On Sunday, April 3, Konroy Boeckel will share his upcoming plans to join a Mercy Ship headed for Africa! He hopes to walk the gangplank on April 6. Konroy attended New Life when he was a teenager, and New Life supported him while he was a missionary in Cameroon a few years ago.

Mercy Ships dock in a country for 6-12 months to providing corrective surgeries, maxillofacial surgeries, orthopedic surgeries, women's health services, plastic reconstructive services and much more. Their aim is to equip the local healthcare professionals while providing needed medical services.

Konroy will be joining the Information Services department supporting the technology on board starting while docked in Dakar, Senegal. He'll be repairing computers, troubleshooting networks, putting ink in printers, etc.

Please consider how you may be able to support Konroy financially. An offering will be received for him and info will be available about monthly support.
