Meet Your NLF Family...Dusty and Amy Benson

I'm Amy. I grew up in Cooperstown. I met Jesus when I was very young at Bible camp. We went to church on Wednesday and twice on Sunday. After graduation, I moved to Fargo for 12 years. Dusty and I met through a mutual friend, and our third date was a seven day cruise :) We got married in 2012. In 2016, the doctors told us we would never have children. In 2017, I found "Moms in the Making" and that ministry has drastically changed our lives. 2018 was the year that we learned about Holy Spirit, that we have authority, the doctors don't have the final say, that the gift isn't a baby...it's Papa God, we switched churches, and we were healed of many things. In 2021, Papa told me to quit my job to pursue ministry. In the Fall, Amy Stangeland and I started recording episodes for "Goodness of God" podcast that were released in January of this year. My heart's cry is for people to know that God is good and for women wanting to grow their families.

I'm Dusty. I grew up in Sheyenne. I went to the Lutheran Church growing up. I started working on the farm when I was in the fourth grade. My dad started custom combining in 1994 and I went with. After graduation I started trucking. When I was 25, I started farming and custom combining while continuing to drive truck in the down time. In 2014, I ended up combining for a farmer who had an airplane. He took me up and I've been hooked ever since. I always had a longing for God, but that longing grew after I met Amy.
