Who Am I?

by The Pastor's Wife

One of my mom's favorite songs that I sing is, "Who Am I?" The lyrics read, "Who am I that a King would bleed and die for? The answer I may never know...how He ever loved me so that to an old, rugged cross He would go. For who am I?"

I think about all the blessings in my life...Christian parents, the joy of having a twin "sissy", my kids and, now, grand-kids, a faithful and loving husband, good health. And the list goes on and on.

But, why me? Why am I so blessed beyond measure? What have I done to deserve any of God's goodness! I don't believe I've done anything more than any of you reading this.

Yes, there are struggles. I know many of you are dealing with tough stuff. I am, too. Life is hard...but God is STILL SO good."

And, YES, I have failed my Lord and my fellow man on many occasions...too many to count. And at those times I am more prone to ponder about "Who am I", but the Lord reminds me of what He has already engraved on my heart. It's not "Who I am" that's important, but "Whose I am!"

We can't get caught up in trying to "earn" God's favor. We have to believe that God is who He says He is and that we are who He says we are, and that's that.

Another song with the same theme reminds me that, "It's not because of who I am. It's not because of what I've done....it's because of who You are."

Only my God can take an unworthy, sinful, selfish creation and turn it into the righteousness of God...a child of the King! And that's all about "Whose I am" not "who I am!"

A friend was in front of me coming out of church one day, and the preacher was standing at the door as he always is to shake hands. He grabbed my friend by the hand and pulled him aside.

The pastor said to him, "You need to join the Army of the Lord!"

My friend replied, "I'm already in the Army of the Lord, Pastor."

The pastor questioned, "How come I don't see you except at Christmas and Easter?"

He whispered back, "I'm in the secret service."

Updates have been made to the automated phone call lists for church announcements/prayer requests. Some notification options had to be deleted as we had reached our limit of allowed numbers. So, for example, instead of receiving both a text and an email as requested, you may only receive a text.

REMEMBER TO LET THE MESSAGE PLAY FOR A MINIMUM OF THREE SECONDS OR IT WILL KEEP DIALING YOU.

What Jesus Has Done for His People

He descended that we might ascend (John 6:38; John 14:3).
 He became poor that we might become rich (2 Cor. 8:9; James 2:5).
 He was born that we might be born again (John 1:14; John 3:2).
 He became a servant that we might be sons (Phil. 2:7; Gal. 4:6,7).
 He had no home that we might have a home in heaven (Matt. 8:20; John 14:2).
 He was hungry that we might be fed (Matt. 4:2; John 6:50).
 He was thirsty that we might drink of the wells of salvation (John 19:28; Isa. 12:3).
 He was wearied that we might rest (John 4:6; Matt. 11:29).
 He was stripped that we might be clothed (Matt. 27:28; 2 Cor. 5:4).
 He was forsaken that we might not be forsaken (Matt. 27:46; Heb. 13:5).
 He was sad that we might be glad (Isa. 53:3; Phil. 4:4).
 He was bound that we might go free (Matt. 27:2; John 8:32-36).
 He was made sin that we might be made righteous (2 Cor. 5:21).
 He died that we might live (John 19:33; John 5:24, 25).
 He will come down that we may be caught up (1 Thess. 4:16, 17).
