Zane Smaaladen to Speak at NLF
Sunday, July 12 at 10:30 AM

Zane was adopted from China at 19 months of age. He was raised on a farm near Aneta and grew up working with his parents in their family-owned greenhouse surrounded by plants and animals. Zane feels that living in rural North Dakota allowed him to explore many hobbies such as basketball, piano, and simply enjoying God's beautiful creation.

As he matured through middle school, he felt and heard the call of God into pastoral ministry while attending Lakewood Park Bible Camp in Devils Lake. This led him to getting involved in his local church at an early age. His heart has always been for people and reaching a dying world with the power of the Gospel...especially in rural North Dakota.

As high school was fast approaching, he began to look for colleges that matched this calling and eventually committed to Trinity Bible College where he is currently a sophomore majoring in pastoral ministries.

"I believe ministry doesn't only start once you've earned a degree or you graduate college. I believe God is asking a generation for unconditional surrender to His will and the furthering of His Kingdom. I will gladly give God my "YES!" to serve Him because the safest place to be is where He leads."

(Zane is the grandson of Don and Eleanor Smaaladen, former attendees of New Life Fellowship. His parents are Steve and Marsha.)

Summer is here!
What a great time to invite someone over for a picnic or campfire
and get to know them better.
